Book Week Special Edition!

Thank you for all your efforts for World Book Day! We had some amazing outfits and some really adventurous words.

This newsletter includes reading recommendations, costume winners and staff photos for World Book Day. It also includes some updates the reading parent questionnaire.

Our newsletter next term will feature children's quotes about reading, recommended reads, Trust talk and library monitors.

Reading Questionnaire Analysis

Thank you to all the parents who completed the reading questionnaire I sent out last term. We received lots of positive comments and have taken lots on board to further improve reading at Ripley Infant School.

Please follow this link to view the reading questionnaire analysis: <https://www.ripley-inf.derbyshire.sch.uk/curriculum/reading-and-phonics>

Some of the things we will be implementing soon are:

- reading slips to inform parents about reading progress which will be sent out every big term
- more recommended reading lists which will be on reading newsletters
- organisation of the library opening after school
